

Resume of Mary A. Chapman, J.D.

Professional:

1992-1994*- Sole practitioner, jet aircraft purchase contracts.

1978-1992-- Counsel and Associate General Counsel, Gulfstream Aerospace Corporation, a Fortune 500 Company based in Savannah, Georgia. Duties: Contract negotiation, international and domestic, for aircraft sales, leasing, insurance documents; vetting foreign agents and representatives; program development for Foreign Corrupt Practices Act compliance and other aviation related legal issues.

1971-1978- Various U.S. Government positions including Counsel, Export-Import Bank of the United States; East-West Trade Counsel, Department of Commerce; Counsel, U.S.-U.S.S.R. Trade and Economic Council, Based in Moscow for two years.

Education:

Juris Doctor Cum Laude, George Washington University, 1971.

Admitted to the Washington D.C. Bar, 1971.

Admitted to practice before the United States Court of Appeals, 1974

Admitted to Practice before the United States Supreme Court, 1979.

B.A. Univ. of Maryland, 1968 dual majors, Political Science/ Russian Language.

Environmental Law studies Nova University, 2002 with Richard Grosso, J.D.

Special Skills and Qualifications:

Merchant Marine Captain's License 100 ton U.S. Coast Guard #785562.

French language: near native

Russian language: proficient

Animal and Environmental Protection:

Board member/Chair, Marine Resources Council (Melbourne, Florida)

Member and Chair, Harbor Advisory Council, St. Lucie County

Turtle projects and protection Hilton Head, S.C. and Trinidad.

Smithsonian Institute sanctioned Dolphin Census Project (five years) in the coastal waters of Georgia and South Carolina.

Humpback Whale observation: for the past three springs, I've flown to the Dominican Republic to participate in "swim with whales" projects, involving direct in water encounters; Silver Bank is the only area in the Western Hemisphere where this is legal

Member and Chair St. Lucie County Environmental Advisory Board.

Attend many environmental conferences such as the Public Interest

Environmental Conference in Gainesville, 2002 and 2004, Florida Beach and

Shore preservation meetings twice annually

Personal:

Married, no dependents

Age: 65

Health: Excellent

Primary residence: 5051 N. A1A, Ft. Pierce, Fl. 34949 Phone (772) 465-2001

Secondary residence: Sailing Vessel "Mayfair"

* 1994-present

Accompanied husband, Craig Mundt, on various foreign assignments until his retirement in late 1997; since then we sailed vessel Mayfair in waters throughout England, Scotland, Ireland, France, Spain, Portugal, Balearic and Canary Islands crossing the Atlantic from Grand Canary to Antigua in January, 2000. Since our return to the US in 2003, I have been involved in projects listed above; my husband is now president of the 2400 member North Beach Association and chair of the St. Lucie County Planning and Zoning Commission; Board member and treasurer of the National Navy UDT-SEAL Museum on N. Hutchinson Island.